

Scholarship Application

Scottish Society of the Treasure Coast
PO Box 5263
Vero Beach, FL 32961

Application Deadline is May 15, 2027

NOTE: Applicants will be considered from students planning further studies and/or learning activities related to Scottish Culture and Traditions, or students seeking support for programs deemed of value and interest to the Scottish Society. Scholarships will be for one year. Applicants will be evaluated on the following: academic achievement, financial need, participation in school/community extra curricular activities, recommendations (e.g. school counselor, music teacher/director, dance coach, other teachers, etc.), and other supporting information.

Please complete all items requested. Attach separate sheets in support of answers if desired. All information will be treated as confidential by the Scottish Society. Recommendation letters may be submitted with application, or sent directly to the address above. Awards are granted by the end of June each year so please submit your application before May 15, 2027 or earlier. You may print and mail this application with any supportive information to the above address or you may scan and email the application with any videos or documents to tcscotsmembership@gmail.com. Applicants are encouraged to submit any additional information in the form of videos, photos, documents or recommendations. Since this is a pdf document you may wish to type up your own document with the required information and email with all attachments.
